GEORGE BROWN.
RG104 E-1 Box 149

D. T. COWEN, President. —315— J. R. MITCHELL, Cashier.

First National Bank.

St. Clairsville, O. 11/8 1887.

Supt. of U.S. Mint.

Phil^{a} Pa.

Dear Sir:

I enclose cut of Gold coin, purporting to be $20. what is it worth?

Respectfully Yours,

J. R. MITCHELL, Cashier.

RG104 E-1 Box 149

1382

St. Clairsville. O.
Nov. 8. 1887

First Nat. Bank.

Inquire the value of enclosed cut of Gold Coin ($20)

RECEIVED
NOV 9 1887

RG104 E-1 Box 149

RG104 E-1 Box 149

Return to
FIRST NATIONAL BANK,
BARNESVILLE, Ohio,
If not delivered within 5 days.

BARNESVILLE
NOV
5
1827

UNITED STATES POSTAGE
TWO 2 CENTS

Mr. Matt M
Painesville O

RG104 E-1 Box 149

U. S. Treasury Department.

We have the same coin of different date (1854) with the Tiara inscribed "Moffat & Co."

The rubbing is 1855. The inscription on the tiara is indistinct.

This is of the private coinage of California from 1849 to 1855.

They are said to worth their face.

Jno. C.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 149

[Abstract:] Inquires the value of enclosed cut of Gold Coin ($20).

315

First National Bank.
St. Clairsville, O.
November 8, 1887

Supt. of U.S. Mint,
Phila. Pa.

Dear Sir:

I enclose cut of Gold coin, purporting to be $20. What is it worth?

Respectfully Yours,
J.R. Mitchell, Cashier.

[Please see original images for coin rubbings.]

[Enclosed note:]

U.S. Treasury Department.

We have the same coin of different date (1853) with the tiara inscribed "Moffat & Co". The rubbing is 1855. The inscription on the tiara it is indistinct. This is of the private coinage of California from 1849 to 1855. They are said to be worth their face.

MC.